Wake! For the Sun behind yon Eastern height
Has chased the Session of the Stars
from Night;
And, to the field of Heav'n ascending,
strikes,
The Sultan's Turret
with a Shaft of Light.

DEDICATION

TO

Col. Albert E. Humphreys

WE DEDICATE THIS VOLUME

of

THE MURMURMONTIS

Because we admire him as a kind, Christian gentleman, with wide interests and generous gifts to many worthy projects, deeply interested in Christian emphasis, very prominent and successful in business. He has done much for the state, for Charleston, and for Wesleyan College. Faithful, steady, positive, deep, humble, versatile, and sincere are words characterizing his personal attributes and attitudes.

FOREWORD

With a desire to make this MURMURMONTIS a simple record of our college life for the year, rather than a crowning effort in the realm of literature or art, we present to our fellow students a life-long reminder of never-to-be-forgotten days; to our alumni, a record of progress; and to strangers, a faithful, though incomplete, representation of life on Wesleyan's campus. To those who, through their aid, have made this volume possible, we extend our sincere thanks and appreciation.

HUMOR

MURMURMONTIS STAFF, 1926

TO OUR CAMPUS

TO YOU to whom Wesleyan lingers in a dear remembered past, to you for whom Wesleyan looms in a not far distant yesterday; to you for whom Wesleyan is yet in the promise of tomorrow, we dedicate these views. Perhaps they may bring back a recollection dimmed with years; mayhap provoke a smile of recent memories, or even bring a wistful dream into some quiet young eyes. And if some one or two of you, in gazing at these pages, slowly-turned, shall pause betimes and smile and then sigh, remembering dim, cool halls; sun-flecked walks; and the mellow peal of the old bell—then it is not in vain these memories have been given you.

Alma Mater of the Mountains

Alma Mater of the mountains, West Virginia Wesleyan,
At thy magic mystic fountains noblest dreams of life began.
We, thy children, bow before thee;
We, thy children, now adore thee,
And pledge God, who watches o'er thee,
Thou shalt fill the ample measures of His plan.

Alma Mater, Queen of Learning, of the Orange and the Black,
At thy call to wisdom turning naught of worth thy sons shall lack.
For the teaching of thy sages
With the writ of sacred pages
Will transmit the wealth of ages
Down the future's ever-wider, brighter track.

Alma Mater of the Highland, guardian of romantic years,
Thou dost bring us to the skylands, with thy faith dispel our fears.
Give us friendship waning never
And a call to high endeavor,
And companionship forever
With the God who guides the courses of the spheres.

Alma Mater of the mountains, West Virginia Wesleyan,
At thy magic mystic fountains noblest dreams of life began.
We, thy children, bow before thee;
We, thy children, now adore thee,
And pledge God, who watches o'er thee,
Thou shalt fill the ample measures of His plan.

Goldie Miller, B.S.

SISTERSVILLE, W. VA.

Excelsior, Vice-President, '24; Y. W. C. A., Treasurer, '24; Girls' Athletic Association; Reporter of Pharos, '23; Student Government Board.

"The fine art of making friends, and not enemies, is more than accomplishment—it is inborn individuality."

"Red" could "kid" President Coolidge into making paper flowers for an Excelsior program. Class Presidents and House Presidents have formed the habit of making Goldie the head of any committee that has to do really hard work.

Clarence Fisher Morrison, B.S.

SUTTON, W. VA.

"A youth adorned with initiative and ingenuity."

After four years as student manager, "Ace" is the best authority in the state on transportation in West Virginia and football towns more or less adjacent.

Senior Class

Katherine Rider, A.B.

SUTTON, W. VA.

Wesleyan Players; Girls' Glee Club; Secretary-Treasurer, '24; Excelsinr; Chorister, '24; Class Treasurer, President; Student Government of Hall, Second Semester.

"She, the sweetest of all singers."

The heart is the fountain of song, and "Katty's" is a heart that was made for singing. The secret of her success in dramatics is the same. She puts her heart into whatever she does.

Albert Joseph Carless, A.B.

PITTSBURGH, PA.

Wesleyan Players, '21-'22, '22-'23, '23-'24, President, '24-'25.

"Is an actor confessed without rival to shine."

He is best known here as an actor, but his active mind finds other outlets. He is a student with the scholar's passion for learning, and a special gift for English.

Senior Class

Nevah Westfall, A.B.

CHARLESTON, W. VA.

Excelsior; Y. W. C. A., Vice-President, '23, President, '24; Secretary, P. K. C., '24; Excelsior, '23, '24, President, '24; Murmurmontis Staff, '24; Class Secretary, '22.

"In exquisite
Image of life, and lover of it."

Others have a genius for music, or art, or leadership. Nevah includes all these in her interests, and more. You might say that she has a genius for living.

Thomas Wetmore Haught, A.B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Glee Club; Chapel Choir; Webster Debating Club; Excelsior, Vice-President, '23, President '24; Pharos Staff; Cutshall Literary Society.

"The kindest man,
The best conditioned, and unwearied spirit
In doing courtesies."

What will remind you more of school and good times than the thought of Wetmore at a piano? Or Wetmore's friendly grin most any place on the campus? It isn't everybody with such a pronounced specialty who can take so much time to be human.

Senior Class

Thelma Cordelia King, A.B.

WESTON, W. VA.

Carnegie Tech, '22; Hockey Team, '23; President Girls' Athletic Association, '24, '25; Student Council, '24, '25.

"A pretty girl, a witty girl,
A girl so full of fun;
A brainy girl, a carefree girl,
A thousand girls in one."

Did you ever hear of the femme du monde? Well, that is Thelma. It is impossible to imagine a situation where she would not know how to do exactly the right thing, but she has something such well poised people are not generally credited with—a warm heart.

James B. Evans, A.B.

MT. CARMEL, PA.

Chrestomathean; Y. M. C. A.; Glee Club, '21, '22, '23, '24, '25; Treasurer, '23, '24; President, '24, '25; Wesleyan Debating Club; Cheer Leader, '23.

"The cheerful grin will let you in Where the knocker is never known."

"Pep" is Jimmy's middle name. He was born to be the life of the party. It is hard to imagine him as the chief actor at a funeral.

Senior Class

May Phillips, A.B.

WELLSVILLE, OHIO

Excelsior, Vice-President, '24, Reporter, '24; Y. W. C. A., Treasurer, '23, '24, Cabinet, '24, '25; Pharos Board of Control, '24, '25; Class Secretary, '23, '24, Vice-President, '24, '25; Assistant Editor MURMURMONTIS, '25.

"The talent of success is nothing more than doing what you can do well, and doing well whatever you do, without a thought of fame. If it comes at all, it will come because it is deserved, not because it is sought after."

May is the kind of girl you know can do the thing that can't be done when it is necessary. The kind that could "Carry a message to Garcia."

Sherman H. Haselden, B.S.

MOUNT CLARE, W. VA.

Manager Class Basketball, '22; Assistant Business Manager Pharos, '24, '25; Manager Meade Street Beanery, '24; Wesleyan Commerce Club, President, '25; Y. M. C. A.

"Nor hell nor heaven shall that soul surprise,
Who loves the rain
And loves his friends,
And looks on life with quiet eyes."

Probably Sherman will be one of the prominent business men of the state some day. He ought to start a chain of restaurants and manage them the way he has the "Beanery." His agreeable personality and helpfulness will bring him friends and success anywhere.

Senior Class

Frances Davisson, A.B.

WESTON, W. VA.

Y. W. C. A.; Chresto; Girls' Athletic Association; Judge of Girls' Court; Murmurmontis Staff, '25.

"A pillar steadfast in a storm."

It has been "Fan's" ambition to know everybody in school, and she does, because everybody finds her worth knowing. She is a leader to follow in everything from Y. W. to rushing a show.

Percy Ross, A.B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Wesleyan Players, '23, '24, '25; Men's Glee Club, '25; Chrestomathean.

"He lov'ed chivalrie, Trouthe and honour, freedom and curteisye."

When an actor is so funny that the rest of the cast can hardly keep from laughing at him, he is good. Although Percy can act "dumb" enough on the stage when it is expected of him, he is far from "dumb" in his classes.

Senior Class

Ruth Furbee, A.B.

CLARKSBURG, W. VA.

Student Council; Secretary of Senior Class; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '23, '24, '25; Excelsior; Murmurmontis Staff, '24.

"Filled to the brim with personality."

Ruth's is a creative temperament that shows itself in art and poetry of promise. She puts originality into every school event she has a hand in, but it is not for her talents that her friends love her.

Fay Harper, B.S.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Excelsior, Treasurer, '21, '22; Vice-President, '22, '23, President, '24, '25; Benzene Ring, Treasurer, '23, '24; Football, '21, '22; Class President, '21-'22, '23-'24; Assistant in Biological Department; President Student Council, '24, '25; Student Representative on Alumni Athletic Board, '24, '25; Murmurmontis Staff, '24.

"He who is to lead men must himself be a man."

When you think of a scientist you ordinarily picture a near-sighted, grouchy genius, who spends all his time squinting at test tubes. "Fiddle" is not only one of the best biology students in school, but he is a jolly fellow whom everyone likes. He has shown all-round executive ability in the long list of responsible positions he has held.

Senior Class

Reta Marie King, A.B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Excelsior; Webster Debating Club; Class Basketball; Girls' Glee Club.

"She was active, stirring, all fire,
Could not rest, could not tire."

If genius is ninety-eight per cent hard work, then there is one genius in the Senior Class. As for the talent that makes up the rest of the recipe, she has more than her share of that. We expect her to be a well known teacher or musician.

Amos Lewis Hoff, A.B.

AUBURN, W. VA.

Masonic Club, Treasurer, '24-'25; Chrestomathean.

"One who never turned his back,
But marched breast forward."

Amos' war record is something for which all of us who had no part in that struggle owe him a debt. We are going to tell a secret about him—he can read Carlyle and understand it. What more could be said of a human being?

Senior Class

JULIA ROOSEVELTA KARICKHOFF, B.S.
BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Chrestomathean; Benzene Ring, President, '23, '24; Y. W. C. A.; Girls' Athletic Association; Chemistry Laboratory Assistant.

"She hath a knowledge of both books and humankind."

Her keen mind and her friendly smile will be pass keys to success in after life, as they have been in her work in the chemistry department.

BENTON BOSWORTH WESTFALL, B.S.
BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Benzene Ring; Excelsior; Wesleyan Debating Club.

"Minded like the living truth."

Benton can use more words than Shakespeare knew. He has learned two thousand a year since he entered high school. That science need not be divorced from supposedly more cultural studies is shown by the fact that he is also a chemistry "shark."

Senior Class

MAMIE BROWN, A.B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Excelsior; Y. W. C. A.

"Her eyes as stars of twilight fair,
Like twilight's, too, her dusky hair."

A kind heart and a pleasing smile and personality, backed by good hard effort in her work are sure to make her path smooth.

ARNETT L. KIDD, A.B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

"This life is not a dream that passes,
To him, but like the summer flower."

It takes courage and ambition to teach and carry college work at the same time. Those qualities will be sure to make Kidd a success in his chosen field.

Senior Class

Mary Ednah Wilson, A.B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Chrestomathean; Y. W. C. A.; Girls' Athletic Association.

"Genius is wisdom and youth."

A brilliant and ambitious student who is finishing her college work in three years. So competent a girl is sure to reflect credit on her class, and the juniors with whom she entered are hardly willing to allow the seniors to claim her.

Orvil E. Maley, A.B.

WESTON, W. VA.

Chrestomathean; Webster Debating Club, '21, '22, '23.

"A strong man—
For where he fixed his heart, he set his hand
To do the thing he willed, and bore it through."

Maley is a man who will be missed by many friends from the campus and the business department next year.

Senior Class

Addie Douglas Scribner, A.B.

BURKLEYS, VA.

Winner of Dean Haught Cup in Oratory, '24; Secretary Wesleyan Players, '24, '25; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '24, '25; Graduate in Expression, '25; Chrestomathean.

"She knew that she could compass her life's scheme,
She had the power sufficient to her dream."

It is a delight just to hear this young lady from Virginia say "Yassah." It is no trouble at all for her to act the colored mammy in plays, although she is just as good in other parts. She has upheld the "Old Dominion's" reputation for good looks and ability during the three years she has been with us.

Herman Howard Miller, B.S.

LITTLETON, W. VA.

President of Masonic Club, '24, '25; Benzene Ring, '22, '23, '24, Treasurer, '24; Chrestomathean.

"Kind to the core, brave, merry, and true."

Does "Red" Miller ever lose his temper? No doubt he does, with that kind of hair, but he goes away off by himself to lose it, for no one has ever seen him except when he was in a good humor.

Senior Class

Mary Ella Sumner, A.B.

LUMBERPORT, W. VA.

Associate Editor Wesleyan Pharos, '23, '24; Class Editor Murmurmontis, '25; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '22, '23, '24; Editor-in-Chief Wesleyan Pharos, '24, '25; Secretary and Treasurer Student Volunteer, '24, '25; P. K. C.; Wesleyan Debating Club; Chrestomathean.

"The good stars met in your horoscope;
Made you of spirit, fire and dew."

It is not so much brains, though she has them and uses them, as it is a gracious faculty for harmonizing diverse elements that has made Mary such a success as editor of the Pharos and leader of other important activities.

Vincent Johns, A.B.

JOHNSTOWN, PA.

President Excelsior, '24; Pharos Staff; Student Volunteer Group; Y. M. C. A.; Cutshall Literary Society.

"His soul is strong, for it trusts in goodness, and shows clearly that it may be trusted."

When the faculty says that a student is reliable, one can be sure that they know. Add to this that "Vinc" is never out of temper and never too busy to help out when one needs it, and you have a hundred per cent fellow.

Senior Class

Mary Martha O'Brien, A.B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Y. W. C. A.; Excelsior.

"You'll find her if you look in the heart of a rose."

"Pretty is as pretty does," and that must explain Mary's looks. When you have won her friendship, you may be sure that it will be a true one.

Ward Cecil Hedrick, A.B.

SINKS GROVE, W. VA.

Cutshall Literary Society; Y. M. C. A.; Chrestomathean.

"He holds the ranks no king can give, no station can disgrace; Nature puts forth her gentleman, and monarchs must give place."

Anyone so genuine and industrious, and so interested in and thoughtful of other people as Ward, is sure to succeed. If it is true that success is not so much what you do as what you are, then he is a success already.

Senior Class

Nellie Hoffman, A.B.

DAVIS, W. VA.

Chrestomathean; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet; Girls' Athletic Association; Student Government Board, Vice-President, '24-'25.

"I saw her, upon nearer view,
An angel, yet a woman, too."

You would never suspect that eyes as blue as Nellie's were meant for books, but her grades are the despair of other less gifted students. She has more than mere book knowledge, for her decisions as vice-president of student government always show good judgment.

Dennis W. Foreman, A.B.

MAGGIE, W. VA.

Chrestomathean, '21, '22; Webster Debating Club, '21, '22; Y. M. C. A., '21, '22, '23, '24; Ministerial Association, '21, '24; Glee Club, '24; Manager of Lecture Course, '24, '25.

"His heart was as great as the world,
But there was no room in it to hold the memory of a wrong."

Dennis' best work has been carried on so quietly that it is scarcely known in Buckhannon. He has probably done more really valuable local church work than any other man in school. As manager of the Y. M. C. A. Lecture Course, he has proved his capability, and as a good student and a pleasant man to meet he has made for himself a place in Wesleyan.

Senior Class

Venetia Kelly, A.B.

TERRA ALTA, W. VA.

Excelsior; Y. W. C. A.

"Her heart is like a garden fair,
Where many pleasant blossoms grow."

With a laugh in her eyes that gives one never a hint of the wisdom in her head, she goes her pleasant way about the campus.

Thomas F. Weaver, A.B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Excelsior; P. K. C.; Commerce Club; Class Basketball.

"His grave eyes steadily discerned the good in men, and what was wise."

If this efficient, gentlemanly senior runs true to form, he will go through life with the same success with which he has gone through his four years in Wesleyan.

Senior Class

Sybil Reppert, A.B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Winner of Winifred Anderson Oratorical Contest, '22; Secretary Chrestomathean, '22; Secretary Wesleyan Debating Club, '22, '23; Debate Squad, '22, '23, '24, '25; Secretary Wesleyan Forensic Association, '24, '25; Pharos Staff, '24, '25; Graduate in Expression, '25.

"Like a steel blade in a jeweled scabbard."

If she had lived in the days before "Woman's rights," she wouldn't have needed to assert hers, for she is so clever and so competent that she naturally belongs at the top of the ladder.

E. George Bayer, A.B.

DETROIT, MICH.

University of Chicago; Y. M. C. A.; Ministerial Association.

"What shall I do to be forever known,
And make the ages come to be my own?"

A man who can carry heavy work in school, succeed in a preaching appointment, and read fifty-four books in two months, is sure to make a mark in the world.

Senior Class

Audrey Will McIntire, A.B.

ELKINS, W. VA.

Y. W. C. A.; Excelsior; Girls' Athletic Association; Conservatory Association.

"Long may we search before we find
A heart so gentle and so kind."

It seems like a little thing to say that Audrey is the kind of a girl you know you can depend on, but once in a while you realize that it is the best quality a friend can have.

Earl C. Ott, A.B.

LITTLETON, W. VA.

Wesleyan Commerce Club; Chrestomathean; Class Basketball.

"In air
Or power of kindness went about him."

Ott made the first goal when his class won the Junior-Senior basketball game last year, and we predict that he will score often after he is through school.

Senior Class

Grace King, A.B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Carnegie Library School of Pittsburgh; Chrestomathean; Benzene Ring, Secretary, '25; Wesleyan Debating Team, '24.

"They build too low who build beneath the stars."

When a speech is in order, Grace has something to say, and the eloquence to say it. A brilliant student, though perhaps we like her better for her friendly smile.

Howard Weston Jamison, A.B.

ROCHESTER, PA.

Intercollegiate Debating, '23, '24; Chaplain Chrestomathean, '24; President Ministerial Association, '24, '25; Geneva College, '21, '22, '23.

"There is no true orator who is not a hero."

Jamison came to us in his junior year from Geneva College. His ability as a speaker was proved last year on the debate team, and he has taken an active part in other college activities, including the Ministerial Association, of which he is president.

Senior Class

Mary Genevieve Plantz, A.B.

CAMERON, W. VA.

Y. W. C. A.; Excelsior.

"In all we dare and do,
She is partner, through and through;
Suffering when we suffer pain,
Happy when we smile again,
Living with us night and day."

When the girls at the Hall all had the "flu," who was the nurse? "Gen" Plantz. When you couldn't get your French sentences, who would help you out? "Gen" Plantz. If you wanted to have a good time at a midnight "feed," who was the first one to ask? Good old "Gen."

Jess Hall, B.S.

DETROIT, MICH.

Varsity Tennis, '21; Manager of Tennis, '24; Benzene Ring; Chrestomathean.

"He walked, scenting the world, looking it full in the face."

Although he has not been with the class for the entire four years, Jess stands among his fellow students as a man of ability in athletics, as he helped uphold Wesleyan's supremacy in tennis last year.

Senior Class

ISABEL UNDERWOOD, A.B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Chrestomathean; Y. W. C. A.

"And all that's best of dark and bright,
Meet in her aspect and her eyes."

A jolly, companionable girl, who is always ready for a good time with her friends.

STANLEY BROWN, A.B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

"The nature of man is greater than nature's need."

A man whose college work is a side line in a successful career, his unusual scholarship is no doubt accounted for in part by the fact that he is continually using all he learns.

Senior Class

Ruth Pajanice Zickefoose, B.S.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Vice-President Benzene Ring, '24; Corresponding Secretary Chrestomathean Literary Society, '25.

"Those eyes,
Darker than the darkest pansies;
And that hair,
Darker than ash buds in the front of March."

It is good to be charming in dress, and face, and manner. It is good to be able to carry responsibility. But to do both with an ease that seems not to be conscious of effort—that is a great achievement.

G. Leonard Fortney, B.S.

TUNNELTON, W. VA.

Chrestomathean; Band, '21, '22; Class Basketball; Benzene Ring, Secretary '23, President, '24.

"If I do vow a friendship, I'll perform it to the last article."

It takes quite a while to find out how full "Dutch" is of fun. The quickest way is to get in the chemistry "lab." and put the right formula to work. It was in recognition of his skill in this and other lines that the Benzene Ring made him their president.

Senior Class

Marjorie R. Henry, B.S.

NEW YORK CITY, N. Y.

Excelsior; Y. W. C. A.; Girls' Athletic Association; Albion College, Michigan, '21, '22.

"The colour and the zest of wine were in her presence and her bearing."

"Marg" has changed all our theories about New York people, for she is one of our friendliest girls and her main interest is in domestic art. Somehow her grades are always up to standard, and yet, she never misses a good time.

Edward L. Combs, B.S.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Benzene Ring; Class Basketball; Chrestomathean.

"A friend
That neither shook nor wearied."

"Ed" is one of the kind that will keep the world's machinery moving without a jar. It doesn't sound showy to say it, but to be dependable often means more for a man's present and his future than to be a genius.

Senior Class

Gladys Mick, A.B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

"For her heart was in her work, and the heart
Giveth grace to every art."

If all who are engaged in "teaching the young idea" were so earnest in the work of developing their own minds, there would be no danger of the pedagogical profession getting in a rut.

Burton Albin Hall, A.B.

FLATWOODS, W. VA.

Chrestomathean; Y. M. C. A.

"His life is gentle, and the elements so mixed in him
That nature might stand up and say to all the world, 'This is a man.'"

Not every man who has taught others for years is willing to become a student again. Mr. Hall will go back to his chosen profession with added skill.

Senior Class

Alice Willerma White, A.B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Y. W. C. A.; Chrestomathean; Benzene Ring; Girls' Athletic Association; State Forensic Association.

"Everything she loved
In which a clean, free spirit moved."

It is not often that you find such a genuine student. She has read everything and remembers everything. She has devoted much time to her expression work and her music.

Byron H. Keesecker, A.B.

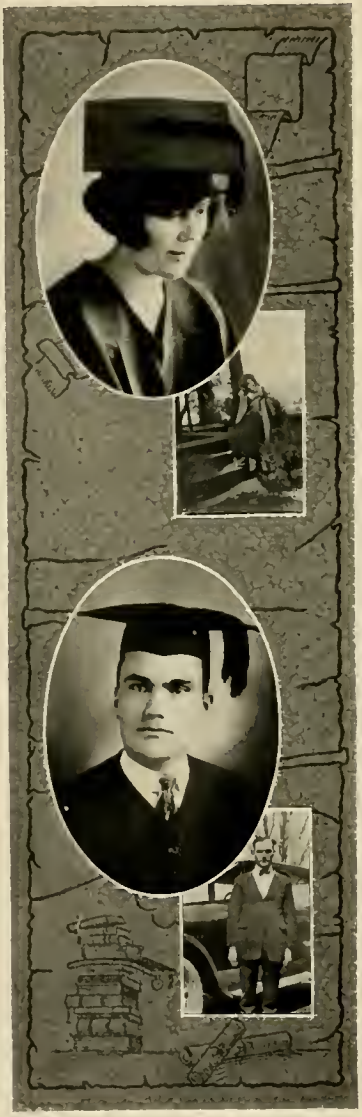
BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Ministerial Association.

"Gentle in manner, strong in performance."

This earnest man combines practical Christian work and the responsibility of caring for a family with a high standard of scholarship.

Senior Class



RETA YOUNG, A.B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

"For where is any author in the world
Teaches such beauty as a woman's eye?"

Though she is so young, this Buckhannon girl has managed to complete a college course and have experience as a successful teacher to her credit.

GEORGE BENSON PRUNTY, A.B.

FALSOM, W. VA.

Y. M. C. A.; Chrestomathean.

"I said to myself, 'I will be good,
And wise, and brave, and helpful to others.'"

Prunty is never guilty of what Dr. Chrisman describes as the sin of trying to "get by." His college degree will rest on a solid foundation of knowledge diligently acquired.

Senior Class

Genevieve A. Stewart, B.S.

CLARKSBURG, W. VA.

Chrestomathean; Benzene Ring; Y. W. C. A.

"And ne'er did Grecian chisel trace
A nymph, a naiad, or a grace,
Of finer form, or lovelier face."

When a girl majors in home economics and takes a special interest in cooking, there's generally a reason—ask Dietrich. When you look at "Gen," nobody could blame him for wanting to be the reason.

Lou Willa Lenhart, B.S.

KINGWOOD, W. VA.

Girls' Athletic Association; Excelsior; Y. W. C. A.

"There never was a minute that 'Willy' wasn't in it."

When you have flunked a test and didn't get a letter from home, and have the blues, just hunt "Willie" up and you feel better right away. It is hard to understand how anyone who is finishing college in three years could find time to work up such a good Charlie Chaplin stunt.

Senior Class

EVERETTE CLAYTON ZINN, A.B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Ministerial Association; Chrestomathean; Y. M. C. A.

"Worth, courage, honor—these indeed,
Thy sustenance and birthright are."

High purpose and ideals are the things most needed today, and Zinn is manfully preparing to do his share in strengthening their power over the world.

LEVA WILMA WEST, A.B., B.M.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Y. W. C. A.; Chrestomathean; Glee Club.

"She was a golden pleasure
For everyone to see or hear."

A brilliant English student, and an accomplished pianist, it is safe to predict success for her.

Senior Class

Cosby Smith, A.B.

HORNER, W. VA.

Chrestomathean; Y. W. C. A.

"A loving heart is the beginning of all knowledge."

One who can always "save the country" when the rest of the class has to say, "I don't believe I know." A girl of splendid character and scholastic achievement.

Anna Elise Watkins, A.B., B.M.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Girls' Glee Club; Excelsior; Vice-President of Four-Paws Organization.

"I opened the doors of my heart, and behold,
There was music within, and a song."

Effort and character have been required to make of her the artist she is. Her sunny disposition makes her as well liked as do her musical achievements, which is saying a great deal.

Senior Class

D. Loraine Altman, A.B.

FAIRMONT, W. VA.

Chrestomathean; Y. W. C. A.; Murmurmontis Staff, '25; Wesleyan Players.

"Her face is fair, and smooth, and fine,
A flower, a flame God fashioned it;
Who sees her, tastes the sacred wine."

The old question, can a woman have brains and beauty, too, is answered here. Loraine is equally at home on the stage, at a philosophy lecture, or at a midnight feed. And wherever she is, she lends a grace to the occasion.

Jean Lee Latham, A.B.

ELKINS, W. VA.

Murmurmontis Staff, '25; Pharos Staff, '21, '22; Wesleyan Debating Club; Excelsior Critic, '23; Athletic Association, Secretary-Treasurer, '23.

"The gladness of her gladness, and the sadness of her sadness,
Are nothing to the badness of her badness
when she's bad."

Some people are born to be different from the rest of us. That is the way the world progresses. How Jean Lee manages to crowd so much successful activity per day into twenty-four hours must be forever a mystery, and she writes clever poems and successful plays just as an avocation.

Senior Class

Pailoun Tatarian, A.B.

Excelsior; Y. W. C. A.

"Eyes so transparent that through them one sees the soul."

If all who come from foreign shores could be one of us as soon as Pailoun, there would be no immigration problem. Her poise and quick wit make her a charming companion. Her loyalty makes her one of the best friends one could have.

Carolyn J. Clifford, A.B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Y. W. C. A.; Excelsior; Girls' Athletic Association.

"The pith o' sense and pride o' worth
Are her high rank, and a' that."

She proves that the Scotch do have the shrewdness and ability they are credited with, and that they also have the sociability they are sometimes believed to be without.

Senior Class

Sylvia Ross, A.B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Varsity Basketball, '22, '23, '24; Manager Hockey Team, '23.

"There's language in her eye, her cheek, her lip, Nay, her foot speaks."

You would never dream to look at this dainty maiden that she is forward on the basketball team and somebody to be counted on where any sort of sports are concerned.

Phyllis Ayers, A.B.

MOUNDSVILLE, W. VA.

Chrestomathean; Wesleyan Players; President of Girls' Glee Club, '24, '25, Secretary, '23, '24; Girls' Athletic Association.

"She held the knave, king, queen, and ace,
In every hand she played with men."

One of the things that will be missed on the campus next year is "Phil's" gorgeous smile. She has taken a worth while part in many college activities.

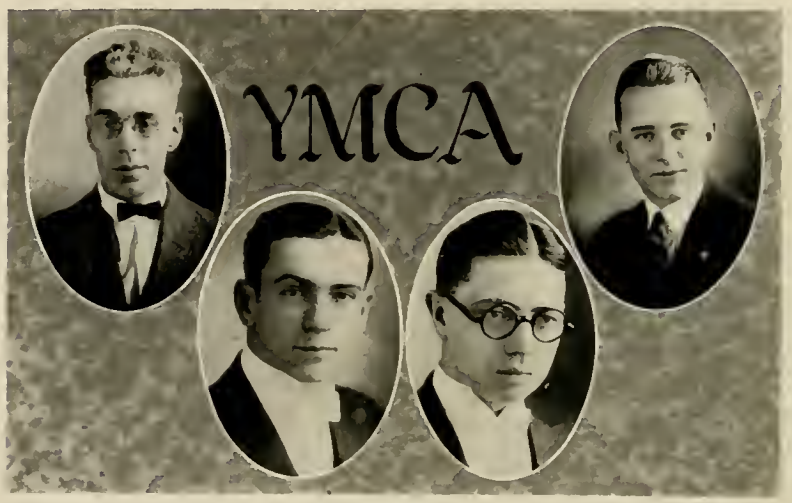
Purpose

To lead students to faith through Jesus Christ.

To lead them into membership and service in the Christian church.

To promote their growth in Christian faith and character, especially through the study of the Bible.

To influence them to devote themselves in united efforts with all Christians to make the will of Christ effective in human society and to extend the kingdom of God throughout the world.



The Young Men's Christian Association is an organization existing for the benefit and service of students. All men enrolled in the college are considered members. No membership fee is charged, all money being raised by voluntary contributions.

The work of the Association has been successful, and a good basis has been made for the future. The Association is interested in all the activities of the men, and endeavors to give service in all fields.

Y. M. C. A. Lyceum Course

The course offered during the season 1924-25 was the most successful in the history of the College Lyceum Course at Wesleyan, due to the wise selection of the talent by the committee from last year. The talent was furnished by the Coit-Alber Lyceum Bureau, of Cleveland, Ohio.

Only one change in the program, as originally arranged, needed to be made. Due to the impossibility of arranging a mutually favorable date for the Fenwick Newell Company, their date had to be canceled, and the Metropolitan Quartet substituted.

Metropolitan Grand Quartet.
Ladies' Rainbow Orchestra.
Gay MacLaren.
Moscow Artists.
Henry Black Burns.
Arthur S. Coggeshall.
Albert Bushnell Hart.
Honorable Josephus Daniels.

The contract for next year is also with the Coit-Alber Lyceum Bureau. The numbers selected are as follows:

Leake Orchestra.
Ada Ward.
Fenwick Newell Company.
Roy Chapman Andrews.
Dr. J. Franklin Babb.
Patton Brothers.
Dinsmore Upton.
D. Marco, Harp Ensemble.

Conservatory Association

CAMP WELLINGTON FOLTZ . . . . . Director of Conservatory
FRANK E. MUZZY . . . . . Instructor in Voice
ALTYN ELLIOTT . . . . . Professor in Violin and Ensemble

ALTHOUGH the conservatory at West Virginia Wesleyan has always held to higher standards musically and artistically, added energy and enthusiasm has featured that phase of our college life this year. This is usually the case when a new dean and faculty in that department appear.

Mr. Camp W. Foltz, a graduate of America's largest conservatory, the New England Conservatory, in Boston, and a pupil also of Philipp, in Paris—who is the outstanding piano pedagogue of Europe at the present time—is the new dean of the conservatory. The bulletin will show a slight change, especially in the featuring of soloists' and teachers' courses only, in the piano department. Public school music courses will be more strongly featured than ever before in Wesleyan.

Mr. Foltz is the director of the Men's Glee Club, which has a program of unusual musical and dramatic interest.

A chorus choir from all the churches of Buckhannon, with some college students, rendered adaptation of the chorus and solo parts from Handel's "Messiah" on the second Sunday evening before Christmas. It is hoped that this will become a Wesleyan tradition.

The year's work of the conservatory really climaxes in the National Music Week, in May, when college and town turn all attention to the muse of Orpheus.

The violin department is headed by a capable, energetic, and sincere new teacher, Mr. Altyn Elliott, who is a graduate of Kansas University Conservatory, and has had artist's coaching with some of the best artists in Chicago and New York City. He has reorganized and enlarged the orchestra. It has aided most fundamentally in choral efforts under Mr. Foltz's baton, such as the cantatas "Ruth," "Messiah," etc., and in individual concert work, assisting in plays given, and in Saturday chapel musical programs. Mr. Elliott is not only an experienced teacher and a pleasing soloist, but has made an immediate impression as a serious teacher.

The vocal department, under the direction of Mr. Muzzy, of Boston, Paris, and London background, has added much to the "twilight recitals" on the third Tuesday of every month, and in various novelty programs, and in operatic work. The Girls' Glee Club, under Mr. Muzzy's direction, gives only the best type of musical programs, and makes an annual trip, as does the Men's Glee Club.

College Orchestra

Professor Altyn Elliott, Director.

The College Orchestra is the only musical organization of its kind in Wesleyan. It has appeared frequently in chapel programs and professional engagements. Its appearances have always met with an enthusiastic welcome. It is considered one of the best orchestras in the history of the college.

Its success is, in a great measure, due to the ability of Professor Altyn Elliott, director. He has patiently and untiringly worked to make it an organization that would favorably compare with the best college orchestras of the country.

There is scarcely a field of orchestra music that the orchestra has left untouched.

WESLEYAN COLLEGE VIRGINIA
OCCIDENTALIS

Student Council

AFTER two full years of work, the Student Representative Council began its third year with the full coöperation of the student body and faculty. Early in the fall term the Council was given a chapel period, at which two members from the student body and two members from the Council gave in full our constitution and plan of student government, and the purpose and aim of the Council.

During the year steps were taken to revise freshmen rules, to perfect the point system, and to make possible the publication of a Wesleyan Handbook. An amendment to the constitution was made covering laws for the organization of a permanent "Thuse Club." A standing committee was appointed to remember members of the student body who are injured or become ill during the school year.

The work of the Council is of importance to the future growth of Wesleyan. Although student government here is still young, it has passed beyond the experimental stage. It has won the confidence of the students and faculty, and has proved its rights to an important place in the life and activities of Wesleyan.

Wesleyan Players

"THE PLAYERS" has made for itself a permanent place in the activities of Wesleyan, due to its high standard and unusual merit in furthering dramatics. The College has recognized the good work done in "The Players," in that it has given one semester hour credit for membership in it.

This year new curtains and stage settings have been purchased by the club. The equipment now used by the organization is equal to that of a good theater.

In December, "Icebound," by Davis, was presented. During the second semester "The Players" will present "The Torchbearers," by Kelly. A third play will be given during Commencement week.

Benzene Ring

THE Benzene Ring, an organization for advanced physical science students, came into being in 1921. Beginning with its first program, all of its numbers have been of a high order. These programs usually consist of lectures and demonstrations by students, members of the faculty, and others whose interests are chiefly in the realm of physical and related sciences. The programs this year compare excellently with the standard hitherto set.

Believing that it is well to "mix laughter with the serious stuff," the Ring has arranged various social events, such as initiations and the annual banquet. These events form an ever memorable part of the college life of all participants.

Its greatest purpose is the formation and cultivation of worthy ideals in its members. It seeks not merely to maintain the high purposes of its founders, but using these purposes as groundwork to build still higher.

It takes for its reaction mixture high ideals plus applied knowledge equals a life of successful service, in which reaction the amount and purity of the product is controlled by the quantity and quality of the reagents. With this product as an end toward which to strive, the Benzene Ring is doing its part in fostering that idealism for which Wesleyan is guardian.

The Wesleyan Pharos

THE subscription list of the Pharos this year has been the largest in the history of the paper. The paper was divided into departments, and the athletic and alumni sections, especially, were strengthened. Exchanges with other schools and with high schools have been much increased. The aim has been to give Wesleyan a paper of which she can be proud; which will faithfully portray events and news of the college and give insight into the various activities, as well as furnish a good literary section.

A "sanctum" has been secured and attractively fitted up, with a complete filing system established. A new "head," donated by a last year's graduate, Neeson Woods, has taken the place of the old one, and a mailing machine has been donated by one of Wesleyan's trustees, Judge Atkinson.

The staff has been put on a higher, more secure basis by putting the competitive system of electing staff members into effect. The interest that the staff has taken in the work of the paper is evidenced by the fact that five representatives attended the Intercollegiate Press Association at Barboursville, two of whom paid their own expenses.

Financial affairs have been well taken care of, and we feel that the paper is in good condition for those who next take up the work.

Wesleyan Commerce Club

THE Wesleyan Commerce Club is a new organization at Wesleyan College, made up of the students in the Department of Business Administration for the purpose of promoting a deeper interest in the department. Its purpose is to coöperate with the governing body of this college and the Buckhannon Chamber of Commerce in promoting the practice of business theory.

Meetings are held at 7 o'clock on the first and third Tuesday evenings of each month. Programs are made up of special subjects of interest to the students in business; special lectures and demonstrations by men out in the commercial fields; and lectures by its own members. The Club will make visits to the industrial centers of the state and give a biennial banquet.

Membership is open to students who are majoring or minoring in the Department of Business Administration, and have completed six hours' work at the time of application. To those who are interested in commerce, the Club furnishes an opportunity to come in contact with many phases of business life.

The Wesleyan Forensic Association

THE Wesleyan Forensic Association is a branch of the West Virginia Intercollegiate Forensic Association. The aim of this organization is to encourage debating and public speaking throughout the state. As a part of this program, intercollegiate debates and a state oratorical contest are arranged each year.

Last year Wesleyan debated a triangle with Salem and Bethany. We won the Bethany debate and lost the contest with Salem. Nicholas Raschella won the state oratorical contest, which was held last year at Salem.

This year we have two boys' triangles scheduled, one with Bethany and Salem, the other with Davis-Elkins and Fairmont. A girls' triangle will be debated with Bethany and Salem. This is the first year we have had a girls' triangle, and it is hoped the experiment will prove successful and permanent.

With only two members of the squad graduating this year, the association has bright prospects for 1925-26.

The Wesleyan Men's Glee Club

The Wesleyan College Men's Glee Club, under the direction of Professor C. W. Foltz, has always been a vital factor in the life of the school. Not only have hundreds of people throughout West Virginia enjoyed programs which have been both entertaining and profitable, but the club has also journeyed to adjoining states, where it has been received by enthusiastic audiences.

The trip this year included the towns of Jane Lew, Lost Creek, Moundsville, Hundred, Wheeling, and Charleston, W. Va., as well as Akron, Ohio, and Pittsburgh, Pa., with a broadcasting program from Westinghouse Station KDKA, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Too much praise cannot be given to Professor Foltz when we consider the untiring manner with which he has worked with the men of the club, and he is a friend and "pal" to all of them.

Wesleyan Athletics

(1924-1925)

PERSISTENCE, diligence, and hard work has crowned the efforts of the coaches of "Ole Wesleyan." This year has seen her name put down in large print all over the United States. It all marks a step in the gradual progress of this little mountain school that in the future will be looked back upon by many and said, "Our forefathers built solidly the foundation of Old Wesleyan."

With the athletic season of 1924-25 fast drawing to a close, one cannot but feel optimistic. Through the struggles of early organization and of rebuilding an athletic system, once the greatest in West Virginia, but sacrificed during war times, Wesleyan athletics have again climbed to the mountain top, from where one can see an even greater future in the years to come.

Topping the best teams of the East, South, Southwest, and the films still blazing its success in the Midwest, Wesleyan is bound to be recognized as a builder of men, both physically and mentally.

With the proposed athletic field still going with leaps and bounds toward fulfillment, and the roads that will be completed this summer, opening up the whole east with the central part of West Virginia, the people all over the country are looking forward to the seeing of big athletic events on College Field.

This year's success having forced national recognition, will pave the way for even greater recognition in each year to come, in the collegiate athletic circles. The schedules arranged for 1925-26 show that Wesleyan is striving for an ever greater place in the athletic world.

The present athletic system, founded on sound basic principles, stands for clean, constructive athletics—athletics that will help build a better and bigger Wesleyan. It is hoped that since Robert Higgins, present coach and founder of this system, is leaving, that a prodigy or coach of the same principles will be selected to carry on the work he leaves to go elsewhere. Wesleyan will carry on, and always toward the higher and the best.

The 1924 Football Season

THE season opened with Wesleyan meeting West Virginia University at Morgantown, playing the first game in the Mountaineers' new stadium. West Virginia won, 21 to 6, "Red" King's 70-yard run for a touchdown being the feature of this game. This play was important in that it gave the first evidence of a powerful attack, for King crashed through the center of the line for his brilliant run.

Though starting with defeat, the team smiled, and, save for one unlucky afternoon, when the bench was filled with cripples, played the remaining nine games without another loss. The magnificent leadership which brought the team from the chaos of defeat to bask in the sunlight of national attention after the greatest football season Wesleyan ever had, speaks for itself. Being defeated by West Virginia means little when one pauses to reflect on the victories over the Navy and Syracuse University!

The success of the season made true a dream dreamed by Coach "Bob" Higgins, Coach Miller, and Wesleyan. Coach Kelcel Ross, who left Wesleyan to take a degree in law, did not labor in vain while he was a member of the coaching staff in 1922 and 1923, when the foundation for the 1924 team was laid. Many times in the past twenty years Wesleyan has almost defeated some of the stronger of the Eastern elevens. Victories were won from West Virginia, but the crown of victory seemed always just beyond reach.

Coach Higgins believed that a team could be built which could hold its own with any football eleven in the country. This enthusiasm and belief was caught up by the other coaches and the team, and one sunny afternoon in October, at historic Annapolis, Maryland, Wesleyan fought its way through the crust of gridiron aristocracy and sent the powerful United States Naval Academy team tottering to defeat.

Wesleyan 10, Navy 7, was the story printed in every newspaper over the continent on Sunday, October 26. After twenty years of effort, Wesleyan had entered the circle of national football fame, but not without cost. Weihl, Dietrich and others of the varsity squad, the smallest in seven years, were injured. Then came the mighty Waynesburg College team, and a discouraging 14 to 2 defeat. The Yellow Jackets defeated Wesleyan 14 to 2, and Wesleyan does not alibi.

Smarting from defeat, but with a grim determination to again come to the front, the team journeyed to Syracuse to meet the undefeated Big Orange eleven. Syracuse had toppled Pennsylvania State, had tied Pitt, after the Panthers defeated West Virginia University, and were favored to win the Eastern collegiate football championship. Few will forget the long hours of waiting that eventful afternoon until the wires finally brought the flash that sent Wesleyan people into the streets shouting.

caused parades and cheering, while newspapers over the country carried the two great upsets of the East in collegiate football, gleaming in great headlines: Princeton 35, Harvard 0, West Virginia Wesleyan 7, Syracuse University 3. The team had come back for Wesleyan gloriously.

Wesleyan had already defeated Broaddus, a clean but hard-fighting eleven which gained the respect of the world last season, 34 to 6. Salem had gone down before the Orange and Black standards, 41 to 0. Proud Marietta had been stunned with a 20 to 0 defeat. Following the Syracuse victory, Wesleyan was followed nationally, and from November 8 until New Year's Day, Wesleyan went undefeated.

Following the defeat of the Orange, Wesleyan met Bethany College at Clarksburg, and, on a mud-covered field, sent the Bison machine down to defeat, 19 to 6. Next came the Thanksgiving Day game, with Favis and Elkins College. Again the Wesleyan attack was handicapped by a muddy field, but, after a terrific battle, Captain Bullman and his cohorts emerged victors by a 12 to 7 score.

The season as scheduled ended here, but insistent demands by Wesleyan alumni living in Southern West Virginia for a post-season game caused a game to be arranged between Kentucky State University and Wesleyan. Kentucky had held Center College to a 7 to 0 score, and were rated a good opponent for the Higgins-coached eleven. The teams met in West Virginia's capital on December 6, Wesleyan winning, 24 to 7, in a brilliant game in which Freka's runs, one for 70 yards, the other for 90, stood out among the best performances of the year.

The success of the Wesleyan eleven had reached all over the country at this time. When representatives of Southern Methodist University, of Dallas, Texas, winners of the Southwestern Conference title, cast about for a good opponent for the annual Dixie football classic for New Year's Day, Knute Rockne, coach of the national collegiate champions, Notre Dame, was approached. Notre Dame was closed to play Leland Stanford University on the Pacific coast, so Rockne suggested that the Texans meet West Virginia Wesleyan, paying tribute to Wesleyan's team by saying: "Wesleyan has the best line in the East, and have defeated the Navy, Syracuse, and Kentucky."

After a canvass of Eastern teams, Wesleyan was invited to play in Dallas, Texas, on New Year's Day. The University of Pennsylvania was playing the University of California in the annual Tournament of Roses game at Pasadena, California. Notre Dame was playing "Pop" Warner's great Leland Stanford eleven at Berkeley, California. West Virginia Wesleyan was playing Southern Methodist University's two years undefeated eleven at Dallas, Texas. New Year's morning came, and football followers throughout the country waited for news from these three great intersectional games. Quoting a prominent news writer, whose article was read by thousands from the top lines of hundreds of sport pages, is what was said: "Notre Dame, California, and West Virginia Wesleyan Win."

Wesleyan defeated the powerful Texas eleven 9 to 7 in a thrilling battle in which neither team scored until the third quarter. The Texas team scored first, and Wesleyan trailed, 7 to 0. Then "Red" King, captain-elect for 1925, kicked a pretty field goal from the 40-yard line for three points. A few minutes later, and Captain Bullman received a long pass from DeLong and raced thirty yards for a touchdown, and victory. Thus closed the greatest season that Wesleyan has ever had, in a thrilling blaze of glory. Instead of being second or first in West Virginia, Wesleyan is now sixth and rated among the leaders in the country. All hail the 1924 Wesleyan football eleven!

Basketball, 1925

THE Wesleyan basketball season got off to a late start on account of the long football season, but no less were the surprises that came to the followers of the Wesleyan cage sports than of those that came to the lovers of the gridiron sport. The best that the Krausman did was to break the jinx and beat West Virginia University in their own back yard, and the splitting of games with the strong Bethany College eleven. The squad was small, even as in football, consisting of Captain Krause, guard; Weihl, guard; Bullman, center; Brinkman, forward; Corcoran, forward; Reiter, forward; Purdy, center; Kiskbaugh, forward; Comstock, guard; but each one of them were praised for their consistent playing. The record, as follows, tells little of the thrills that happened in each of the contests, but does show the advancement of this sport and the rewards of hard work in its building from practically nothing a few years ago. "Virtue has its own rewards."

Track, 1924

Track was again inaugurated into the Wesleyan sport program, and, although it did not have opportunity for entering many intersectional meets, it did show Wesleyan can develop a good track team with the material that is here. Kishbaugh, Stewart, Jack, and Columbo showed to good advantage in the meet with West Virginia University, and are still in school. With Dietrich, Prunty, T. Stewart, Chatfield, and Mecks there is even a greater possibility, by the time the curtain drops on this year's season, that these boys will have carried Wesleyan's colors to greater victories.

Tennis, 1924

Tennis is again an active sport at Wesleyan. More interest was shown last season than for some time in the past. Tennis is a coming sport all over the country, and Wesleyan hopes to do her part in boosting the game. To show that she is back of the movement, the Athletic Board has adopted tennis as one of the four major sports of the college. And again, the enthusiasm and support of the student body is strong, and it looks as though tennis is on Wesleyan's map to stay.

Manager Hall arranged eight matches for 1924, of which only five were played, due to inclement weather. Wesleyan won four of these matches, losing only to Salem College in a hard-fought match, 2 to 4. The other schools played were Broaddus, Marietta, and West Virginia University.

The men composing the team were: Daniel F. Westfall, Jess Hall, Eugene Modlin, and John Cohourn.

The 1925 schedule is the strongest in the history of the school, including the following schools: West Virginia University, Duquesne University, Potomac State, Clarksburg Tennis Club, Pittsburgh University, and Carnegie School of Technology.

Baseball, 1924

IN 1923 practically the whole baseball team graduated, but that did not discourage Coach Ross, and he started in with the new timber for 1924 with a vim, and with the able leading of Captain Knight. Wesleyan lost the first game, with Carnegie Tech, 7 to 2, but in the game following the next day, after eleven innings, managed to hold to an 8 to 8 score, and finished the day on account of darkness. Our old rival, West Virginia University, on the next game swamped us, 12 to 2. Salem then followed with a loss, 9 to 6, and brought back the old spirit, but 'twas not to last, for D. and E. came along and swamped us again, 11 to 3, followed by Pennsylvania State taking our measure, 8 to 3. Then Georgetown carried us away by the tune of 11 to 2. No matter—the boys kept the old fighting spirit, though they again lost to the Quantico Marines, 7 to 0, and the Navy, 5 to 2, came back and defeated Marietta College decisively by the score of 12 to 5, and D. and E. 4 to 3, then closed the season by romping over the Salem College, 15 to 0.

Of the team that was built this year, only one leaves, that being Captain John Knight, and with Reed, Corcoran, Garrity and DeLong on the pitching staff, with Erdman, Weihl, Cottle, and Bullman for the infield; Martin, Fenton, Comstock, Kraus, Brinkman, Thomas, and several others eligible for the outfield, there remains only the second station position, left by Knight, to fill.

Athletic Director Carl Miller is already on the job, and has scheduled some mighty nice games for this crew in the coming spring of 1925. Things look rosy for the boys this spring as one takes note of the following schedule:

Department of Physical Education for Women

Miss Alice Nason
Goucher College, '15, and Columbia University
Director and Coach

Girls' Athletics

Miss Nason deserves a great deal of credit for the progress made in the development of girls' athletics in Wesleyan College the past year. Besides the hockey teams that were started a few years ago, Miss Nason has developed interclass basketball as well, and a wealth of material was found for the varsity. Some track was taken up by the girls, and they showed themselves to be as enthusiastic as the boys for the sport. Although there are no intercollegiate games between the girls of the different colleges, the adoption of these different games for girls has created a desirable form of exercise for them, and shows the department is keeping abreast with the tendencies of modern times.

Girls' Basketball, 1925

The scheduling of many games was impossible for the girls' team this year, but the two games with West Liberty Normal were good. The girls split the games—Wesleyan losing at West Liberty Normal, 15 to 20, and winning at home, 20 to 14. In the class basketball games between the teams made up of the varsity and the different classes the girls played so well that it was a revelation. Much improvement has been shown under the efficient supervision of Miss Nason.

Next year will see greater progress in the girls' department, for Miss Nason is untiring in her efforts to make this department interesting for the girls, as well as developing them physically and mentally.

Tournament

The state basketball tournament, annually conducted at West Virginia Wesleyan College, was this year well named "The Tournament of Tournaments." The 1925 state tourney followed eight sectional tournaments under the new tournament ruling made by the State High School Athletic Association. The winners and runners-up of each sectional meet played at Wesleyan on March 20 and 21 for the state title, the A and B Division idea of former years being carried out in the divisional tourneys as well as the state. Thirty-two teams, sixteen in Division A and sixteen in Division B, played for the titles of the two divisions at this year's tournament.

In two sparkling games, the one in Division A being the most spectacular in the history of the tournament, Wallace High School won the Division B championship from West Monongah High. In the third extra period of play, Huntington High School won the state championship from Wheeling High.

The State Tournament this year was a success in every way. The games were well planned, the director had built up an efficient organization, and citizens of Buckhannon and students at Wesleyan combined every effort to take proper care of the state's most important and biggest high school athletic event.

The thirteenth annual tournament will be held next year at about the same relative date as was this year's, but, although it will be the thirteenth, there is no fear that the superstition regarding thirteen will have anything to do with the 1926 games. The development of the tournament; the state-wide interest taken in the event; the influence the tournament has had in developing basketball as a scholastic sport in West Virginia; the splendid spirit of coöperation existing between high schools, the State Association, and Wesleyan, all point to the fact that the West Virginia High School Basketball Tournament has become a state institution, and as such, the event has already been placed on the 1926 state's athletic calendar. Wesleyan looks forward to again welcoming the teams and the hundreds of basketball enthusiasts back to Buckhannon next March.

Red Revolution

A certain group of young radicals raised the red flag at the sun dial on this date. As reported by an eyewitness, this is what happened:

They broke all the rules they could think of as they marched up toward the front door. But when the girls looked up and saw the grim-eyed ranks which confronted them, they got out of it. Then the battle began.

Neckties, buttons, and pieces of sweater filled the air. Comstock took his stand at the foot of the wooden steps, gathered up the freshmen an armful at a time, and passed them on to Kraus, who sent them to the sidewalk. One of the student preachers got into a fist-fight. Art Simmons reached the front door and came back faster than he went. Then he thought of going around to the side door and coming out the front. The upperclassmen had a grand time with him when he came out.

More buttons and sweaters flew. "Irish" Garrity poured a bucket of water down on the crowd, but the only one it got was "Buck" Kraus.

The dean came out and stopped the fun. Peace reigns once more on Wesleyan's campus.

Repairs, depreciation, fire-safety, insurance rates and fuel costs are the factors that determine the investment value of your home-building. The savings which the Face Brick house gives you in respect to these factors cancel, in a few years, the slight difference in first-cost over cheaper types of construction.

We cordially invite you to visit our display rooms, where, from the panels of brickwork, you can get an idea of the many beautiful effects possible with Face Brick.

Let Us Supply Your Wants

WHAT IS YOUR LIFE WORK TO BE?

President Coolidge says: "He who sells an insurance policy sells a certificate of character, an evidence of good citizenship, an unimpeachable title to the right of self-government."

The need for insurance is as old as it is universal and more urgent in hard times than in prosperous periods. The life insurance agent is his own master, controlling his own time, earning in exact proportion to his successful effort, and finding no limit to the new applications of insurance to needs. The economic human value is now scarcely more than one-seventh protected.

Do you want to engage in a dignified profession; to help serve the social order; to represent the greatest institution in the world; to choose those with whom you deal; to find business any time and everywhere; to work for yourself and earn accordingly?

Will you let us tell you more about this great business and especially concerning
